What is Complete HOA Resource?

Complete HOA Resource offers the resources and tools to properly educate homeowners on association living. We work with community managers, board of directors, real estate agents, builders and developers to supply them with educational and welcoming materials for their new homeowners.

We realize the need for more than just a manual to explain the benefits of living in a common interest community. Our DVD "Association Living: Understanding Your Association ©" and our Welcome Packets act as informative guides for homebuyers by familiarizing them with the advantages of association living.

"Association Living: Understanding Your Association ©"

Join Jason and Karla through this interactive DVD that will teach your homeowners everything they need to know about association living in less than 15 minutes! We promise to present a DVD that your homeowners will actually enjoy watching! "Association Living: Understanding Your Association ©" covers all the basics of association living such as the advantages of living in a covenant protected community, the role of the board of directors and community manager, ACC guidelines, budgets, assessments, amenities and much more! After watching our DVD, your homeowners will understand the importance of association living! Visit our website at www.completeHOAresource.com to watch a short video clip.

The Ultimate Welcome Packet

Send your new homeowners the ultimate welcoming package complete with our DVD and Welcome Packet all about their association. Many times new homeowners move into an association and have no idea who to contact to receive a key to the pool, who to contact about amenity information, how they can rent out the clubhouse for an event, who the board of directors are, etc.

Give them all of the information they need in one location to make their transition easy and pain-free! The perfect thing about this welcome packet is that you can customize it any way that you want it! We have templates along with an easy design process. Visit our website to get started on your Welcome Packet today!

What are the benefits?

- Less phone calls from upset homeowners due to their lack of knowledge about policies & procedures.
- Less violation letters that need to be sent out (save on time and postage).
- More involved homeowners who understand how the association works!
- A better appreciation for the work that you do as a manager or board of directors!
- More satisfaction with your management company!
- And most importantly generate a profit for your company!
